POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Commission Members,

Since the appointment of Louis DeJoy as Postmaster General, the quality of my mail service has declined markedly. The most notable issue is timeliness of mail delivery. Now, if I send a payment even the day after I receive a bill, the likelihood of that payment arriving by the due date is questionable. Greeting cards have been received weeks after the celebration.

Now, we see Mr. DeJoy pushing a new decimation of our mail services which would involve closing some post offices, cutting postal worker hours and shipping mail by truck rather than by air.

I am writing to ask your Commission to stop this 10 year plan and further destruction to our postal system. Please save our USPS and refuse to allow this plan to be implemented.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Charla R. Flynn
